

Pray Race And Yell for a Cure Walk

Stephanie Vasofsky Cervical Cancer Foundation

The 2014 Pray Race And Yell for a Cure Walk is scheduled for Saturday, March 22 and is returning to Shelby Farms Park. This event will be a great day to honor our survivors and those we have lost; as well as educate on HPV, Cervical Cancer and how to prevent losing anymore loved ones to this disease.

All proceeds from the Pray Race And Yell for a Cure Walk, benefit the Stephanie Vasofsky Cervical Cancer Foundation. The funds raised will be used to develop and distribute educational materials. Our goal is to educate about Cervical Cancer, what causes it, and what can be done to prevent it. To do this, we attend cancer seminars, health fairs and other events.

We know that education is key to saving our loved ones from this very preventable disease.

Below you will find the 2014 Event Sponsor information.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me at (901) 488-8748 or feelteal@bellsouth.net.

Thank you for your continued support.
